Letter No. C 410/LB 25-26 & 6.4.28 from the President, Shevaroy Board.

Requests that in the circumstances that case orders may be issued for issuing debentures bonds or otherwise before of the party's share of Ad-interim orders relating to the Shevaroy District Board Railway Loans.

In this Office memo. No. C 410/LB 25-26 & 6.4.28 from the Shevaroy District Board President letter No. C 410/LB 24-25 & the 11th May 1926 it is said to have been observed by the Government about 1900 Ad-interim orders on the Company that, as they have been in existence for a long period, the parties might be instructed to pay up the balance of the subscribed amount within a short limited period or else debentures for full amount may be issued and in the meanwhile the President observed that the question of issuing debentures in lower denominations to any party up to Rs 500 and upwards in place of the temporary ones viz Rs 50, Rs 100 Rs 500 Rs 1000 could have been considered afresh

2. The President of the District Board in his letter No. C 410/LB 25-26 dated 6th March 1928 have therefore invited

The President states that cases where amounts less than Rs.50/- have been tendered amount to only Rs.15,767/-. ~~What this sum would be if~~ To this will have to be added the small balances that would remain if bonds for round sums of Rs.50/- are issued in other cases also may be ascertained from the President and if in Case of all such cases less than Rs.50 is not large, they ~~not large~~ may after giving notice to the parties be ~~discharged~~ repunded, no interest being paid after the expiry of the period of notice.

As the management of this loan is now taken over by Government it is undesirable to issue bonds of denominations of less than Rs.50/-.
